

Fiqh of Salaah Course

Course Description:

Salah is the greatest type of worship as it connects the servant with his Lord. Salah is expression of gratitude to Allāh over his innumerable bounties. But we may be performing salah without knowing its correctness and validity. Allah says in the Noble Quran : “Take due care of all the prayers, and the middle prayer, and stand before Allah in total devotion.” (Surah Baqarah 2:238).

This course helps the student understand the aspects of salaah which can make it void of blessings or full of blessings once these factors are recognized and implemented.
